MUSIC AND MISSION

I read this and think this is relevant to our church. This is from an article by Anne McNair in The Presbyterian Outlook magazine.

"What is the relationship between music and mission? I believe they are closely related. God has given humanity the wondrous ability to create beautiful and powerful music. Throughout the Bible we are instructed to "sing a new song" and to play instruments to God's glory. During Sunday worship, throughout the church at large, members of the choir and congregation raise their collective voices in song to offer praise, glory and honor to God. Stirring organ music or other instrumental music, along with Word and Sacrament, inspire us to leave our sanctuaries of worship and to go into the world to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to tend the sick and to visit the prisoner. As we sing powerful hymns, we often find a new resolve to help the "least of these." With music, in the context of a worship service, the Holy Spirit often inspires us to play our respective roles in God's mission to provide both spiritual and physical sustenance for all of God's children."

SANCTUARY FLOWERS: If you would like to have flowers placed in the sanctuary in memory or in honor of a loved one for August, please sign-up in the chapel or contact Kristen Franchetti.

ADVENTURES OF STU BEAR: This summer, each week during Sunday's Children's Message we have been hearing about Stu Bear's Adventures as he visits a different child (or child at heart) each week.

NURSERY SCHOOL OPENINGS: Weekday Preschool of Pitman has openings for their 3 year old and 4 year old programs for this coming school year. They also have a Mommy and Me program with a few openings left. For over 50 years, the Weekday Preschool has provided a safe and welcoming environment for children to grow and to know that they are loved. At the Weekday Preschool, we prepare children to live Christian lives and succeed academically. This is done through a Christian perspective by relaying that we are all God's children and we should share his love with those in the classroom, community and beyond. This is conveyed every day through teachings in the classroom, as well as participation in many different mission based projects throughout the school year. If you are interested, call the office at 589-1021 or visit their website at: pitmanpres.org.

The Call: The Life and Message of the Apostle Paul
Follow the journeys of the Apostle Paul, beginning with his dramatic conversion, as he spread the Gospel through modern-day Greece and Turkey. Join us for a 7-week Bible Study and Dinner gathering at the Presbyterian Church at Woodbury. We will meet for a light dinner and then work through Adam Hamilton's study on the Apostle Paul.
